

EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITIES AT THE DURANGO ARTS CENTER

The Durango Arts Center invites local, regional and national artists of all levels, from emerging to professional, to exhibit in Durango's community arts center.

Barbara Conrad Gallery

Group Exhibits – Artists can apply individually, and, if selected, will be placed with other individual artists whose work complements the works of the artists chosen. Artist groups and organizations (weavers, photographers, etc.) are also invited to apply. Applications for the 2012 exhibit schedule will be available in the spring of 2011.

Juried Exhibits

Four Corners Commission held annually in January. The work in this exhibit must reflect the life, landscape and culture of the Four Corners. All media except film accepted. Work is selected by an art professional.

Annual Juried Exhibit held annually in June. All media except film accepted. Artwork for the exhibit is selected by an art professional.

Members' exhibit – all member artists of the DAC are invited to submit one piece for this exhibit. All media except film will be accepted. 2010 Members' Exhibit will be in March.

Holiday Art Olé – annual juried holiday boutique and sale in November & December.

Gallery Shop

Local, regional and national artists working in ceramics, book arts, jewelry, small paintings and original prints, glass, etc. are invited to submit work for consignment sales in the DAC's Gallery Shop. Work is selected by the Gallery Shop Committee.

Artists' Corner – Artists working in two-dimensional media (painting, photography, original prints, etc.) can apply for a monthly exhibit in the Artists' Corner in the Gallery Shop. Artists must be current members at the Senior/Student level or above, and work is chosen on a first-come, first-served basis.
